

Cambridge Model United Nations

The fourth session on an international platform

As we draw in closer to the fourth annual session of CAMUN, we invite your school club to join us in a spectacular culmination of high-level debate modelled on professional UN protocol and jargon to navigate through 21st century issues.

Its predecessors, as regional conferences, have exceeded expectation in terms of academic excellence demonstrated by at least 300 students from across the UAE and were lauded by UN Resident Coordinator. We anticipate CAMUN 2015 to emulate the finest standards of discourse and academic rigor in dealing with international relations.

Model United Nations is an innovative, challenging and rewarding simulacrum of the real-time United Nations debate experience as delegations role-play as nation states in a political theatre, involving each other in a series of enthralling caucuses, speeches and live voting procedures to solve crises.

We offer an exciting and diverse agenda corresponding to our theme 'Beyond the Crisis...' which is relevant to the labyrinthine and complex political landscape of the 21st century and wishes utilize diplomacy as the sole compass in war and crisis resolution.

CAMUN2015 is scheduled for 15th to 17th of January 2015, hence, 3 full day events held at an opulent hotel in the prismatic capital of the United Arab Emirates, Abu Dhabi, commencing at 9:30am to 5:30pm, excluding an exciting Delegate Dance on the second day (16th January) from 8:00pm to 11:00pm.

The participation fee per delegate is $299.99, to cover the cost of snacks, tea and lunch for 3 days.

Tickets to the Delegate Dance cost $50 per person.

The fee per delegation is $249.99, and the accompanying MUN director fee is $149.99.

Note for local schools contact Suganthi John, s.john_chs@gemsedu.com

We welcome your pursuit in MUN excellence and look forward to seeing you!
